Communities of Light

Peace Begins At Home

Illuminating the Night to Raise Awareness of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

During the winter solstice in December, Communities of Light™ candles line the streets of central New Jersey - a powerful symbol of hope for women and children impacted by domestic violence and sexual assault in our community. Communities of Light™ raises awareness of domestic violence and sexual assault and the services available to help victims in Mercer County. The candles come from special luminary kits produced by Womanspace. their light helps spread our important message that Peace Begins at Home.

Each year, more than 200 volunteers sell, distribute and display the luminary kits. Volunteers sell the luminary kits to their friends, neighbors and co-workers. Participants can also buy the kits from a variety of local retail stores and on the Womanspace Web site.

At dusk on Sunday, December 14, 2008, hundreds of people, scores of organizations and community groups, and the 13 municipalities within Mercer County will light thousands of their candles. Domestic violence agencies from neighboring New Jersey counties also participate in Communities of Light.
